By Brent Rytting Daily Universe Writer

Deadlines for the two Y Day contests are fast approaching, according to the contest chairman.

Cakes to be entered in the baking contest should be turned in to the custodians office, Smith Family Living Center, Tuesday before 2 p.m. The non-cake mix pastries should be on cardboard plates.

All students are encouraged to display their kitchen skills in the contest, according to chairman Jeanne McCune. Five judges will pick the winner on the basis of originality, texture, flavor and appearance. Cash prizes will be awarded to the best three cakes.

Deadline for petitions for the "Least Preferred Man" contest is Monday at 4 p.m. Entries should be turned in to Douglas Pearce's box in the AMS office in the basement of Clark Student Service Center.

Candidates being sponsored by social units, campus housing units, and other "fans" are Jim Green, Lamar Hair, Dick Charles, Noell Wootton, Gareth Wootton, Dave Finlanson and Harold Bywater.

Other males vying for the dubious honor are Kent Sibbett, Wayne Sabej, Ernie Schulze, George Hallock and Bob Cera.

Students will elect the candidate of their choice during the voting period Wednesday. A social award will be presented to the "Least Preferred Man" later in the day, according to Louise Judd, contest chairman.

Brent Strong, student chairman of afternoon activities, has announced a full slate of student and faculty stunts and games.

Cougar Stadium will be the scene of a faculty greased pig chase, girls' tire rolling contest, plus many surprise stunts that all students will be able to participate in.

A variety program will entertain students during lunch hour. The Student Program Bureau will provide the talent for the program.

Student assignments have been made and will be published in Tuesday's universe. Students that do not have a specific assignment are to report to the East Stadium on Wednesday at 7:30 a.m. with rakes or shovels.

HARANGUE

by Ronald Duane Safsten

PROVO, Utah — (API) — Two graduate infracanexponential engineering students at Brigham Young University have succeeded in extracting fresh, wholesome cow's milk from a campus milk vending machine. The students, Donovan Horsecheste, 21, and Victor Smedge, also 21, both of New Calleo, Utah, said they used an involved method developed over a two year period to get the thoroughly drinkable milk from the machine.

"With just a few alterations on our complicated original process," said Smedge, "we feel confident we will also be extracting ham sandwiches with red edible ham from any sandwich machine on the quad within weeks."

Authorities from Balk-Pence Vending Machines, Inc. and BYU engineering department heads are investigating.

Excerpt from Bawl Harvey's news cast:

"... Yes, these boys think they've stumbled on something — something big — but somehow — somehow I just can't conceive of fresh — really fresh — milk coming out of those machines. Let's watch — and wait. Now — page three ..."

MOSCOW — (TASS) — Comrade Nyetnik Glimmitch of Tse-Tungogor yesterday released conclusive proof that he and his loyal staff — while working on a milk-vending machine identical to that used by the two Brigham Young University students — not only got fresh milk from the machine, but actually extracted three and one-half full grown fresh cows. In gratitude the Ministry of Deportation has permitted Mrs. Glimmitch and their five children, all named Ivan, to obtain exit visas to Alaska.

Special to the U. S. News and World Report: Serious doubt has been cast upon the claims of two young midwestern university students who insist they can get sweet, palatable cow's milk from one of their campus milk vending machines.

A spokesman for the National Association of Vending Machines said vending machines are always tested before installation so "It would be impossible to get fresh milk from that machine."

NEW CALLEO, Utah — (API) — "We're sorry," said Victor Smedge, 21 year old engineering genius and ex-BYU student. "It was all a hoax. We built an exact replica of the milk machine, put in fresh milk, and set it up just long enough for people to see we were actually getting fresh milk from it. Then we took it down and let immoderate campus gossip take over." "I guess," stated Donovan Horsecheste, 21 year old fellow ex-student, "it got out of hand."

Authorities have proposed no charges be made against the pair of pranksters, on recommendation of Balk-Pence Vending Machines, Inc., which had the bogus milk dispenser taken far out into Utah Lake and sunk.

Plans Set for Utah Zoology Study Tour

Travel Studies Dept. and Zoology Dept. of Brigham Young University are cosponsoring a travel laboratory to Arches National Monument and Dead Horse Point May 22 through 24.

Price of the tour will be $12, which includes transportation, lodging and a breakfast at Dead Horse Point. All other meals will be furnished by students.

Although the tour is primarily for zoology students, anyone in the studentbody may go. There is a limited number of spaces available, so reservations should be made early. Travel Studies Dept. said.

Reservations may be made with the Travel Studies Dept. or Dr. Donald Alfred in the Zoology Dept. The tour will leave at 11 a.m. Friday and return 5 p.m. Sunday evening. Some of the places to be visited on the tour will be Dead Horse Point, the uranium boom town of Moab and Arches National Monument. Church services will be held at Arches National Monument Sunday morning.

Friday evening those on the tour will sleep outside, so they should have either a sleeping bag or three blankets. Travel Studies Dept. said.

Cougars Smash Utags, Remain in 1st Place Tie

Brigham Young University's nine dumped Utah State's Aggies in a twin-bill Saturday, 11-4 and 6-0, to remain in a first place tie with Utah in the Western Division baseball race.

Coach Jay Van Noy's charges unleashed a 21 hit attack in the two contests, including eight doubles and four home runs. The victories leave the Cats with a 5-1 league mark.

In the opener, Jack Cravens showed remarkable control as he hurled his way to his third straight conference victory. Cravens scattered 10 hits while striking out eight Aggies to defeat USU. He walked only three batters while hitting one other. Only two of the four runs scored against the Cougar Ace were earned.

BYU finally caught up with USU starter Brian Thornley in the third inning and managed nine runs off him before he was relieved in the seventh by John Erikson who finished the contest for the Ags. Pete Marks, Mac Madsen, Gary Earnest, Jim Pierson and Cornell Taylor all got dummies in the opener.

Madsen drilled a home run into deep left-center for the longest poke of the first game. Madsen was the top hitter of the first contest with three hits in four trips to the plate.

In the second contest, Bob Madsen threw a five-hit shutout at the outmanned Utags. Madsen struck out six while walking three. He was the nightcap starter for the Farmers in the nightcap was less than effective, as he allowed five runs in four innings before being replaced by Hal Reeder who finished the seven-inning affair for the Aggies.

Wight was tagged for three home runs during his stint. Danny Moore tagged a towering blast into the left field embankment in the second stanza. Then in the third inning, Jack Pierson and Jerry Martin tied off for a pair of back to back homers.

Moore led the Cougar batsmen in the nightcap with three for three at the plate. Jim O'Brien had two for three and Pierson had two for four.

The Cougars next conference game is Saturday when they travel to Missoula to meet the University of Montana in a double header. This weekend also takes the University of Utah tangling with the USU Aggies.

Cats Roll Over 'Tips Rat' to Record

MISSOULA, Mont.—Behind the record shattering performance of freshman Matti Raty, Brigham Young University's chinchilla rolled over an outmanned Montana squad Saturday, 86 1/6 to 44 5/6.

The "Flying Flap" broke both the Western Division and Skyline records as he raced to victory in the two-mile in the speedy time of 2:34.3. The new mark which will stand as a division record, but not a conference mark since it was registered in a dual meet, eclipsed by nearly four seconds the former mark held by Bill Eide of Montana.

Rife's record was 9:28.2 which he set in 1953. Raty's mark was also eight seconds better than Gary Griffith's conference record.

The Cats grabbed first in nine of the events, including clean sweeps in the 100-yard dash, 220 and mile run.

Alton Trygerson, freshman sprint sensation, took first in both the dashes to become the only double winner of the afternoon for the Cougars. Griffith took the mile in the fast time of 4:23.2, followed by Gary Ellison and Raty for the sweep.

The biggest upset of the meet was registered by the Grizzlies' Hank Mohland who defeated conference recordholder Dave Parker of BYU in the 120-yard high hurdles.

Other impressive wins were registered by Ed Coats in the high jump with a height of 6'6" and Dean Lundell in the 66-mile.

The victory was the second Western Division win of the season for Coach Clarence Robison's Skyline champion cindermen. Next the Cougars face tough Utah State at Logan on May 8, as part of the annual Agathon.

Coach "Buck" Dixon's tennis squad made it two in a row last weekend while his golf squad split a pair of matches.

The Cougar netmen, who had gone winless in four previous outings this season downed Montana, 4-3, Thursday, and Utah State 5-2, Friday, in Western Division dual meets.

The golf team downed Montana State Thursday, 14-5 to 3-6, but was edged by the Utah State Aggies, 10-5, Friday. The loss was the only setback handed any Brigham Young team last weekend.

The netters compiled four singles victories each day to insure the victory for the Cats and allowing Coach Dixon to use his record.
